

What's New

A summary of recent and upcoming changes:

Loan Limit Changes
Loan Limit Changes	Conforming- 2018 Conforming Loan Limits are now in live in the Broker portal for all floating loans and loans locked on or after December 21, 2017. All conventional loan programs have been updated to allow for the increased loan amounts. FHA- The maximum loan limits for FHA forward mortgages will rise in 3,011 counties and apply to FHA case numbers assigned on or after January 1, 2018. LDW will start accepting loans with the 2018 limits starting January 1, 2018. Click here for a complete list of FHA loan limits. VA- The Veterans Benefits Administration has announced the Dept. of VA's effective loan limits for loans closed on or after January 1, 2018. All loans, excluding IRRRLs, closed on or after January 1, 2018, will be eligible for the new VA loan limits. LDW will start accepting the new VA loan limits effective on or after January 2, 2018. To price/lock new and existing loans with the new VA loan limits prior to January 2, 2018:* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - New submissions and existing floating loans: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Run product and pricing in LDW's Broker portal with the current loan limits to confirm eligibility and lock or confirm pricing (if floating) at current loan limits ○ Contact your Account Executive, who will work with our internal Operations team to manually price/lock the loan at the correct loan amount - Existing locked loans: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Contact your Account Executive, who will work with our internal Operations team to manually price/lock the loan at the correct loan amount
Non-Delegated Correspondent (NDC) Updates	The LDW portal has been updated as follows for NDC: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acceptable file types to upload on the Conditions screen now include PDF, XML, and Excel files • The Pricing screen now allows 3 days lock extensions after "Final Purchase Commitment"
Reminder of Upcoming Changes in 2018
HMDA	Starting with new applications taken 1/1/18 or later, loanDepot Wholesale will require, at submission, FNMA's Demographic Information Addendum as part of the 1003. The addendum will supersede any demographic information provided on the 1003.

California Recording Fees	On September 29, 2017 the state of California enacted the Building Homes and Jobs Act, impacting CA refinance transactions (excludes purchase transactions), beginning January 1, 2018. In addition to the existing recording fees, a fee of $75 (not to exceed $225 or 3 documents) per single real estate transaction, shall be paid at the time of recording every “real estate instrument, paper, or notice” (Cal. Gov. Code § 27388.1). The purpose of the bill is to provide affordable housing opportunities by establishing a permanent, ongoing source of funding. LDW now requires all CA refinance transactions not scheduled to close in 2017 to include this additional recording fee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Loan Estimates (LE) generated through our Broker portal will pre-populate the new fee at the $225.00 max allowable fee, meaning it will be imposed on no more than three (3) document types per transaction regardless of how many documents are recorded • Broker generated LEs must have the additional recording fee disclosed as well as documented on the Title fee quote
Form 4506-T	The IRS has released new versions of forms 4506-T and 4506T-EZ (July 2017). Any orders placed after January 1, 2018 must be submitted using the new forms or they will be rejected. Also, as a reminder, LDW requires completed 4506-T forms at submission on all transactions.
Texas A6 Amendments	On November 7, 2017, Texas voters passed a ballot measure to amend the home equity lending provisions under Texas A6. The amended provisions will lower the threshold of applicable fees that can be charged on a home equity loan from 3% to 2% and will exclude certain fees previously included, such as appraisal, survey, title insurance premiums, and a title examination fees. The amendments will take effect on January 1, 2018. For any active Texas A6 transactions that do not sign loan documents on or before December 31, 2017, a new 12-day notice will be provided to the borrowers for signature and a new 12 day waiting period must elapse before the loan can fund.

